Sir Edward Grey Refers to Disclosures by German in Moroccan Affair

BELIEVES SLATE IS CLEAN

Secretary's Lucid Explanation
Wins Him Support of
House of Commons

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Sir Edward Grey, secretary of state for foreign affairs, in a quiet and unassuming manner, but with intense impressiveness, laid bare in the house of commons this afternoon the part Great Britain played in the Moroccan negotiations which brought Europe close to war during the summer.

At the outset he referred to the disclosures by the German foreign minister, Herr Von Kiderling-Waechter, of the conversations between the German ambassador and himself. This disclosure he said was not complete and he was under the necessity of putting more fully before the house of commons the part taken by the British foreign office.

The house was crowded with members and the gallery with distinguished outsiders including most of the diplomatic corps. Nothing was withheld. Sir Edward stated frankly that the greatest anxiety had existed but fortunately he was able to add that the negotiations had cleared the slate between Germany and Great Britain. Anxiety was not constant, but intermittent, and was caused by the fact that the negotiations might at any time reach a deadlock. It looked on one or two occasions as if a deadlock could not be avoided.

Great Britain he continued, also received information which gave rise to apprehension that the settlement contemplated by Germany might be the partition of Morocco, arrived at by negotiations, to which it was not intended Great Britain should be a party.

Wins Support of House.
The secretary's lucid exposition of the negotiations and the firmness he was able to show he displayed during the trying week won him the support of the house, with the exception of a few radicals or "peace-at-any-price" members, who believe that the firmness which prevented war will estrange Great Britain and Germany.

In the lobby after the speech, confidence was expressed in Sir Edward's conduct of affairs during the crisis and satisfaction that the government is working for better relations with Germany. It is believed the speech will have a reassuring effect in Germany.

Touches on Other Questions.
Later Sir Edward Grey spoke on Persian and other questions. He defended the Anglo-Russian agreement which prevented the two nations from trying to gain advantage of each other in Persia. When the Nationalists got rid of the shah they hoped also to get rid of Russian influence, but this was perfectly hopeless.

Referring to the circulation by IV Morgan Shuster, the American treasurer general of Persia, of a pamphlet attacking Russia, while the Russian demands were still unsatisfied, Sir Edward said it was an impossible situation if an official of one of the two neighboring powers circulated such pamphlets and still remained in the service of the government.

James Ramsey MacDonald, Socialist and Labor member, criticized the secret with which diplomatic negotiations are carried out. He asked whether the agreement with Russia did not aim at crushing Persia or compelling Great Britain to agree to a partition of the country.

John Dillon, Nationalist, declared it was humiliating that a British Liberal minister should deliver a long speech without uttering a word of sympathy for the people of Morocco.

JUDGE C. M. BLISS DIES IN HOSPITAL

Denver Jurist, Respected
Throughout State, Operated on Last Week

Nov. 27.—Judge Carlton M. Bliss, a Denver district court judge, died at 3 o'clock this afternoon at St. Luke's hospital. He suffered a sudden rupture after an operation performed last week for poisoning of the lower intestines.

Judge Bliss was one of the most highly respected men of the Colorado judiciary. His opinion upon suits involving subjects of great importance and of a complicated nature was constantly sought by attorneys. He was one of the prominent and influential members of the Republican party. Judge Bliss went on the bench in 1906. He was 49 years old.

Carlton M. Bliss was born in Eau Claire Wis. in 1862. His early education was received in the public schools at Eau Claire, after which he attended Beloit college, graduating in the class of 1885. He then entered the Columbia university law school.

Coming to Denver in 1888, he entered at once into legal work and later represented the western legal interests of several large insurance companies and looked after the western work of large New York and Boston legal firms.

Mr. Bliss seemed to avoid public life, but his ability won him recognition, and when he consented to accept the Republican nomination for district judge in 1906 it was the choice of the Denver bar.

He is survived by a half-sister, (Mrs.) Dr. A. L. Chase of Boston and a half-brother, E. K. Swift of Hortonville, Mass. He was unmarried.

SEN. LA FOLLETTE THANKS
CALIFORNIA PROGRESSIVES

FRESNO, Cal. Nov. 27.—Chester H. Rowell, president of the La Follette League of California, today received a telegram from Robert M. La Follette, thanking the league for endorsing him for president.

"California stands today a leader of the most enlightened progressive thought in a democracy where all men and women are equal in self-government," the message read.

"To be unanimously endorsed for the presidency by 400 representatives of that great state is an honor which I shall cherish while I live as an expression of faith in my purpose to serve the public interest."

"The league's support," he said, "will inspire progressives in every state with renewed zeal and courage for the great struggle now on to make our government truly representative of all the people."

PARRICIDE TO PRISON
GLENNWOOD SPRINGS, Colo., Nov. 27.—Eugene Smith, 16 years old, was today sentenced by District Judge Shumate to from 35 to 50 years in the penitentiary for the murder of his father last August. The boy had been upbraided by his father for laziness on the farm. An altercation ensued and when the father went to punish his son, the boy fired a load of buckshot from the effects of which the father died an hour later.

DISORDERS IN LISBON
RESULT IN BLOODSHED

LISBON, Nov. 27.—The disorders that occurred here last night owing to the expulsion of two Chinese women for the illegal exercise of a "cure" for blindness, attained serious proportions. All the streets in the center of the city were occupied by cavalry, who charged continuously in all directions. The populace, which was armed, offered firm resistance and shots were freely exchanged. Suddenly a great explosion was heard on the Plaza dom Pedra. The cavalry galloped up, unslinging their carbines, and poured volley after volley through the windows of a cafe in which a great mob had taken refuge and barricaded themselves with chairs, divans and other furniture.

The mob answered the attack until all the large panes of glass were riddled with bullets. Then they surrendered. Two persons were killed and a large number of wounded were found on the floor of the cafe.

A similar scene was enacted at another store where some of the Republican leaders had taken refuge from the furious populace. The rioters unable to cope with the militia, fled into taverns and other places from which they hooted and fired upon the passing soldiers until the latter entered and expelled them.

After the explosion of the bomb the mob invaded the hospital of Sao Jose, which occupies the buildings of the former Jesuit college of Santo Antonio, built in 1757, whence they tried to carry off the wounded, but were repulsed by the soldiers.

PITMAN'S SISTER CAUSES ARREST

CHARGES W. D. HOLOHAN
WITH ASSAULT

Mrs. Golden Declares She Was Ejected From Home of
Mrs. Lucinda Pitman

PITMAN case yesterday afternoon as the result of an incident at the home of Mrs. Lucinda Pitman, mother of the little Indian boy Robert, whose wealth has brought about a legal tangle between factions supported by the mother and the federal government on one side and the father, Robert Pitman, on the other.

A warrant was issued and served on W. D. Holohan from Justice W. H. Gowdy's court. Mrs. Martha Golden, sister of Robert Pitman, Sr., is the complaining witness. Mr. Holohan is the husband of the woman who was appointed by Indian Agent Mott to look after the household interests of Mrs. Pitman during her residence in this city.

In her complaint Mrs. Golden makes a direct charge of assault against Holohan. She says he ejected her forcibly from Mrs. Pitman's home, 827 North Cascade avenue, and that she has witnesses to prove that Holohan struck her as she passed out the door. Holohan disclaims any violence and says Mrs. Golden's exit was brought about through the command, "leave this house." The claim is made that Mrs. Golden is a religious fanatic and is possessed with the idea that she was sent here from Muskogee, Okla., "by the hand of God."

Holohan's Side of the Case.
"At least she said when she first came to the city that she had been sent here from Muskogee by the hand of the Almighty, and I presume that it was the same hand that directed her to the home of Mrs. Pitman," said Holohan.

According to the story told at the Pitman home, Mrs. Golden's visit was made at the time when Robert Pitman Sr., accompanied by a friend, was paying his first visit to his divorced wife and his son, Robert, Jr., since the time the district court took the custody of the boy out of his hands.

Accompanying Mrs. Golden were four unknown women. There were no indications of recognition on the part of the brother and sister, according to Mr. Holohan.

"I was sitting at the table sitting and paid no attention to the visitors," he said. "I heard Mrs. Golden say that she had come to see how Mrs. Pitman kept house. Mrs. Pitman did not know her but had given orders that Mrs. Golden was not to be allowed in the house. So when my wife asked her name and I heard it, I immediately followed instructions and ordered her from the place. That was all there was to it."

Holohan will be given a hearing tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock before Justice Gowdy.

REPLICA OF FIRST STEAM
VESSEL IN MISSISSIPPI

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 27.—Amid a din of whistling from river craft the replica of the steamboat New Orleans, the first steam vessel to ply the Mississippi river, came into the harbor today, completing a cruise from Pittsburg in celebration of the centennial anniversary of the inauguration of steamboating on the Father of Waters.

Irish Players in New York Theater Target for Refuse

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Riotous disorders broke out tonight at a performance in which the Irish players recently arrived from Dublin, attempted to produce "Play Boys of the Western World" at Maxine Elliott's theater.

Much refuse was thrown at the actors and police reserves were called out. Ten prisoners were taken.

The uproar started as soon as the curtain rose and so interrupted the performance that at the end of the first act Alfred O'Donovan, who played the part of the Play Boy, announced that the play was over.

By this time most of the rioters had been arrested and dispersed and the repetition of the first act was accompanied by little trouble.

The Irish players believe there was a concerted action on the part of the disturbers and declare that determined little groups appeared to be distributed advantageously throughout the house.

It also developed that an attorney appeared at the police station several minutes before any of the prisoners were brought in and offered to defend any of the arrested men.

Potatoes, eggs, vegetables and other missiles were thrown on the stage and several of the actors were struck. Miss McGee received a particularly hard blow on the head by a potato but her wealth of hair saved her from serious injury.

The audience was mainly a fashionably dressed one. The playlet, "The Jail Gate," preceded the performance of "The Play Boy" and met with no disturbance, but promptly upon the announcement of the second bill houses came from the gallery and spread through the whole house.

The real rioting broke out when the Play Boy came on to announce that he had killed his father and was lauded by the women characters. There were cries of "Shame, shame, that's not Irish," and the like.

"The Play Boy of the Western World," as written by Synge and staged by Lady Gregory, was declared in a resolution recently passed by the United Irish societies as an insult to the Irish race, in that it was held to be immoral and made a hero out of a parricide.

FOREST FIRES SERIOUS

Great Oak Trees, Fields of Grain and Livestock Destroyed Near Oxnard, Cal.

OXNARD, Cal., Nov. 27.—Sweeping through Eliseo canon today and leaving the Big Willowhwy ranch virtually a pile of ashes, destroying much grazing land in Wheeler, Adams and Eliseo canons, an amphitheater of flames 15 miles in length is stretched out over a line of foothills tonight and is threatening other valuable property.

Canada's large canon is in most imminent danger. Flames have already started in the lower edges of the canon and should the wind spring up tonight Foster park, a well-known resort and casino will be in direct line of the fire.

Today great oak tree patches and fields of grain were destroyed in and around Eliseo canon. Ranchers say much livestock perished.

HILTS' THREAT GETS GOVERNOR

CHANGES MIND ABOUT
GOING ON TRIP

Says He Cannot Afford to Risk
Having Legislature Called in Special Session

DENVER, Nov. 27.—Fearing that in his absence from the state, as well as that of Lieutenant Governor Fitzgarrald, Hiram E. Hiltz, president pro tem of the state senate, would call a special session of the legislature to elect a successor to the late United States Senator Charles J. Hughes, Jr., thereby endangering the governor's own chances, Governor Shafroth suddenly reappeared at the state capitol this afternoon, announcing that he had given up his projected trip on the governor's special.

Governor Shafroth sent the following telegram to Gov. James H. Brady on board the special train at St. Paul, Minn.:

"Had my ticket bought and baggage packed when president of senate in newspaper interview claimed that if I left the state he would, in law, become governor and might call extra session of the legislature. His view differs from mine, but no decision of court in Colorado on subject. Cannot take risk when so important matter is involved. Hence cannot join you."

In the interview mentioned by Governor Shafroth, Hiltz said that if 51 members of the senate asked him to call a special session in Governor Shafroth's absence, at the same time stating that they had unanimously agreed on a senatorial candidate, he would call a special session.

WESTERN GOVERNORS OFF ON LONG TRIP

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 27.—The "governors' special" train of 11 cars, carrying seven western governors, left St. Paul shortly after 10 o'clock tonight on a three weeks' tour of the east, covering more than 4,000 miles. Ten states are represented on the train: California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Minnesota, Colorado and Wyoming.

Governor Odell of Nevada is expected to join the special in Chicago. The seven governors who left tonight are: Governors Eberhardt of Minnesota, Ames of South Dakota, Burke of North Dakota, West of Oregon, Hawley of Idaho, Norris of Montana and Carey of Wyoming. In addition to the governors there were other representatives from each of the states, and more will join the party at Chicago.

Lieutenant Governor Fitzgarrald represents Colorado. J. E. Barnes represents Washington, while California has its representative in former Governor Gillette.

The object of the tour is a "campaign of education." The products of the field, the mine, the opportunities of the west, the vast empire of the northwest, will be talked of and shown to the people of various states through which the special is scheduled to pass.

The governors today made a preliminary trip to Minneapolis where they were guests of the Commercial club. The governors and the entire party were guests of the St. Paul Association of Commerce at a farewell banquet.

The special is due to arrive in Chicago tomorrow morning.

EYE WITNESS' STORY IS SAME AS WOMAN'S

Declares He Saw Mrs. Patterson
Knocked Down Before
She Shot Husband

DENVER, Nov. 27.—The defense in the Patterson murder case today turned on the story of the eye witness, a man who testified that he had seen Mrs. Patterson in the act of shooting her husband. The defense attorney, Mr. M. H. Hiltz, by his opening created something of a sensation.

He was Francis J. Lutton, 52 years old, who testified that he had come from Minneapolis, Minn., to appear in Mrs. Patterson's behalf.

He came to Denver the day before the shooting. He testified that he had been employed by a harness and saddle company and left Denver two days after the shooting for Tacoma, Wash., where he said he visited his son.

Lutton corroborated the story told by Mrs. Patterson that she had shot her husband after he had struck her twice and knocked her down and was standing over her with his arm upraised to strike again.

On the morning of the shooting he said he had gone out to the sanatorium where Patterson was a patient and after an inspection of the grounds had set out for a walk in the neighborhood. Some distance from the sanatorium he observed a man and woman walking ahead of him. They seemed to be quarreling, he declared.

Saw Woman Knocked Down.
They turned at a street corner and he proceeded straight along. When he was some 30 feet or more away from the couple he looked back and told, and saw the woman apparently reading a newspaper (Lutton said she handed the clipping to the man and as she did so, he struck her in the face, spilling ink with a second blow that fell her to the ground. She struggled to one knee, he said, and fired twice in rapid succession following with two more shots after a short pause. The man fell and the woman tried to enter the grounds of the house in front of which the shooting had occurred through a small gateway, and falling in this had run in through the entrance to the driveway near by. On cross-examination he said he had seen A. B. Shogard, the eye witness placed on the stand by the state running to the spot but did not go over to the body himself, having turned down a street and taken a street car back to the city because, as he told the jury, he did not want to get mixed up in the affair.

"What is your name?" was the way in which Special Prosecutor Horace G. Benson opened a vigorous cross-examination. He questioned the witness closely in regard to his life history but failed to shake the witness' composure.

Forgot Name of Employers.
Mr. Benson drew from the witness the statement that he had worked in Denver in 1886 when he had been employed by a manufacturing company.

SECRETARY NAVY URGES RELIEF FOR OFFICERS

Believes Government Should Provide Fixed Sum for Official
Entertainment

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Explaining it has long been recognized as a crying injustice to high ranking officers of the navy that they are compelled to spend a part of their pay for entertainment merely to uphold the government's dignity, Secretary of the Navy Meyer today made public a section of his annual report in which he recommends that each commander-in-chief and officers acting singly should have a fixed sum to draw on for official entertainments.

"In all nations except our own," said Mr. Meyer, "it is recognized that entertainments to uphold the dignity of the nation and for its benefit should be paid for by the nation."

Far-reaching and beneficial effects, in the belief of the secretary would be obtained by the enactment of a law for the creating of a board of national defense and he strongly urges the passage of such a bill. The council, it is proposed, should consist of the secretaries of war and navy, the chairman of the military and naval committees of the house, the chief of staff of the army, a naval officer designated by the navy department and presidents of the army and navy war colleges.

As an adjustment of national defense, says Secretary Meyer, the proposed law is desirable in that it would make it possible to formulate and carry out a consistent and continuing policy. It would help to coordinate the plans of the army and navy and would, by having the cooperation of the committee in congress, be entrusted with scrutiny of expenditures, reconcile the different interests involved before submitting to the president and congress recommendations for national defense.

FAS' WORK ON MESSAGE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—President Taft's annual message to congress was turned out in record time at the government printing office here today. Corrections made by the president and secretary Hiltz early allowed the message to go to the printers shortly before 1 o'clock. It was estimated to be about 5,500 words in length.

Tonight the president glanced over 10 sheets from the printing office and at tomorrow's cabinet meeting they will be gone over for the last time.

CLAIMS "BEAR" OPERATORS TO BLAME

Rep. Littleton Says They Want to Affect Stocks Through
Steel Inquiry

Steel Inquiry

REQUESTS AN INVESTIGATION

Asks Subpoenas for Secretary and Counsel of National Antitrust League

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Charging that recent attacks upon him as a member of the house committee of inquiry into the steel trust have emanated from "bear" operators in Wall street, who seek to prolong the inquiry to force down steel stock, Representative Martin W. Littleton of New York demanded today that the committee investigate his complaint and the source of an article assailing him which appeared last March in a New York newspaper.

Mr. Littleton will submit tomorrow to Representative Stanley, chairman of the committee, a letter setting forth his charges and requesting that subpoenas be issued for David Lamm, a New York broker, Henry B. Martin, secretary of the National Antitrust League, Herman Schulteis, counsel for the National Antitrust league, and Jackson Tinker, the Washington correspondent of a New York newspaper.

"If the committee does not wish to call these witnesses," said Mr. Littleton, "I have served notice on the chairman that the committee will have to face the matter with me on the floor of the house."

"I charge that the attack upon me was instigated by Henry B. Martin, the secretary of the so-called Antitrust league, who has been consorting with the committee ever since it was appointed and I will show that Mr. Martin from time to time has reported progress of the committee to David Lamm, a bear operator in Wall street, whose interest in having the investigation prolonged is to hammer down the steel stocks."

Says Martin Accused Him.
"I will keep at this until I get Mr. Martin on the stand. I will show that Mr. Martin last Thursday afternoon met Jackson Tinker at the Waldorf Astoria in New York and that I was then the subject of conversation. A friend of mine entered the hotel and saw Martin and Tinker in conversation. Martin turned to my friend and said 'I thought you told me Littleton was square?' My friend declared that I was and Martin replied 'He is not. He is getting retainers from the steel corporation.'"

"My friend resented this and left. The next morning the article was published assailing me as a representative of the steel trust on the investigating committee."

"Martin has been stirring up this lie about me for some time, and was particularly aroused because I felt, since suit was filed by the government against the steel corporation, that the committee should not continue its inquiry."

"I will show that Mr. Martin within the last few weeks has been consorting in New York with David Lamm and that he has been reporting to him on the work of this committee."

Wants Accounts Produced.
"I want to ask Mr. Martin and Mr. Schulteis about their antitrust league, where their funds come from for prosecuting their work, and maintaining themselves in Washington, and I shall ask for the production of their accounts. I don't propose to let an ass-

MAY ASK FOR MILITIA IN COAL DISTRICT OF STATE

Situation in Northern Fields is Pronounced Serious, Especially at Louisville

DENVER, Nov. 27.—Labor troubles in the coal camps of northern Colorado, where a strike has been in progress for some time, have reached a stage where the advisability of calling for troops is being considered, according to news received here today. At Louisville the situation is regarded as particularly critical. The mines there are owned by the Rocky Mountain Fuel company, a Wyoming corporation. President Brown of the coal company declares today that unless conditions improved within the next two days he would ask Governor Shafroth to call for the protection of federal troops to which he owes the company, as a non-resident property holder, is entitled.

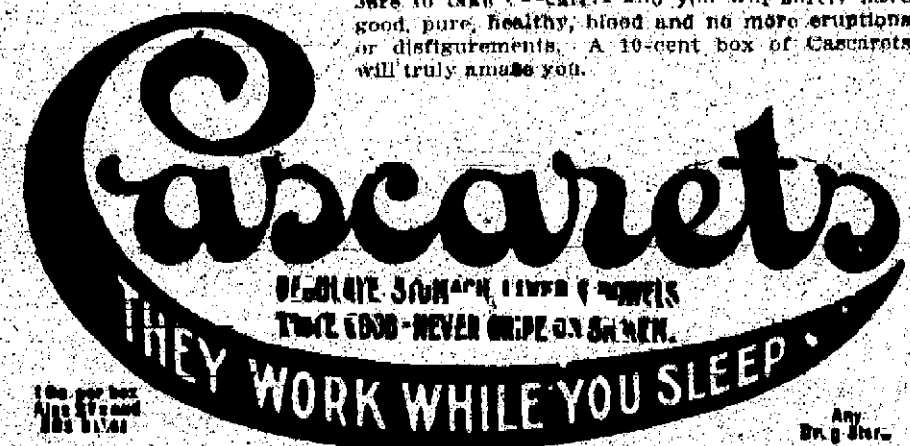

Since Saturday it is reported that the union and the non-union miners have been in practically open warfare. Bands of strikers and women sympathizers paraded the streets, flourishing revolvers and other weapons and making threats against the non-union workers. Armed guards were stationed at all entrances to the camp to prevent the entrance of strikebreakers. Every station of the Denver and Interurban Electric line was guarded and a man looking like a miner was compelled to give strict account of himself.

BRYAN'S CRITICISM IS ANSWERED INDIRECTLY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Speaker Champ Clark today declared he had devoted the last three years chiefly to getting the house Democrats together and holding them together, and that after 17 years of factional fighting, "The Democrats are united and by the blessing of God will remain so."

"I did not do it all by a long shot," he added. "I had lots of help and every Democrat who participated in that troublesome, laudable work deserves his full share of the honor."

Where there was once despair in Democratic hearts there is high hope now. In this way the titanic head of the Democratic lower body of congress made indirect reply to criticisms of former national presidential candidate, W. J. Bryan, as to the speakership no longer carrying the leadership of the house.

"The trend of public opinion," he continued, "is toward the Democrats. President Taft's long trip seems to have things in statu quo."

The speaker said the recent elections prove that wherever the tariff was the sole or principal issue the Democrats won, and that when President Taft vetoed the tariff bill it was inevitable that the tariff would be the leading issue next year.

"One of the most preposterous canards put into public print since Gutenberg invented movable type," added the speaker, "is the charge that I am in favor of the forcible annexation of Canada. There is not a fact in the universe on which to base such a slander. I never at any time or place stated or even hinted at such a wicked and quixotic scheme. I have never dreamed of such a thing and would oppose it to the utmost."

He has frequently, for years expressed the hope that there might be a union of the two countries by mutual consent and for the good of both. It always seemed to me a friendly suggestion because we are neighbors of the same blood and speaking the same language, but as the Canadians do not seem to want that, there is an end of it."

PEACE SOCIETY APPEALS TO ITALY TO ARBITRATE

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The New York Peace society, of which Andrew Carnegie is president, appeals to Italy to submit her disputes with Turkey to The Hague tribunal in resolutions made public tonight. The resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the directors at which Mr. Carnegie presided.

PINCHOT SAYS LA FOLLETTE WILL SECURE NOMINATION

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Gifford Pinchot, ex-United States forester, in a speech before the annual dinner of the insurance club tonight, said: "The man who the Republican national convention nominates will be a man acceptable to the Progressive wing of the party and before long every one will understand that that man is Bob La Follette. He is a man about whom crystallization is going on faster than ever."

Mr. Pinchot denied that he spoke in any way for Mr. Roosevelt or that the ex-president had suggested La Follette's name to him.

BLACK MAN TURNS WHITE

CHILLICOTHE, Mo., Nov. 27.—The case of negro who turned white is reported to the National Medical society, with the hope that something may be learned of the peculiar skin disease which has baffled physicians of northwest Missouri for several years. The negro, who is dead here, was Dudley Payne, coal black and typically African in features. He came to Chillicothe three years ago. After he had been here a few months he began to turn white in spots. The spots at first appeared on his hands and later spread to the upper part of his body. The change came gradually. At the time of his death, the head and the upper part of his body were as white as those of any Caucasian.

MRS. VERMILYA HELD TO GRAND JURY FOR MURDER

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Mrs. Louise Vermilya was held to the grand jury by a coroner's inquest today in connection with the death of Policeman Arthur Besonette. She is under arrest, charged with poisoning him.

Little new testimony was added to that brought out previously by the police investigation. Witnesses told of Besonette living at the Vermilya home, of his illness, of his death and the subsequent examination of his viscera for poison, which was found in quantities.

Simple but Impressive Ceremony Marks the Elevation of Eighteen Prelates

ROME, Nov. 27.—In the hall of consistory at the Vatican today the formal ratification of the pope's nomination of 18 new members of the sacred college was carried out with simple ceremony. The striking feature of the consistory, which was attended only by the pope and cardinals resident in Rome and the visiting cardinals, was the elevation of three American prelates.

Monseigneur Farley, archbishop of New York; Monseigneur O'Connell, archbishop of Boston; and Monseigneur Falcinella, apostolic delegate at Washington, who now retires from that office.

The actual bestowal of the red hat has been reserved for Thursday, when the public consistory will be held in the hall of the beatification, and a much more stately ceremony will mark the occasion.

The pontiff himself seemed to feel the great importance of the event for America to the church. In the private conversation he said, the flourishing condition of Catholicism in America would remain in history as one of the chief characteristics of his pontificate.

It was a decree of Pius X which removed America from the jurisdiction of the propaganda, thus lifting it out of the class of missionary lands, and the granting of three cardinals to the great republic is evidence that that country has now been raised in the eyes of the Holy See to the same level.

Followed by Swiss guards and his suite, the pontiff passed for a moment at the threshold while the cardinal deacon, in white vestments, read the names of the new cardinals.

As the last of the number, saying homage returned to his place, the master of ceremonies, loudly proclaimed "Extra omnes," and gradually the greater number withdrew until the pontiff and the cardinals were left alone for the duties which had brought them together.

Pius X broke the silence that followed by a long and fervent prayer.

rebuttal with the privilege of further examining one of the defense witnesses tomorrow morning, and it is declared by Attorney Hillon that testimony in rebuttal will be brief. The defense tomorrow will ask that the jury be taken to the scene of the shooting to investigate the contention of Attorney Hillon that the state's eye-witness, Shugart, could not have witnessed the affair from where he said he was. After this, there remain but the instructions of the court and the closing arguments of counsel.

The defense today placed on the stand witnesses who testified to having seen a bruise on Mrs. Patterson's cheek when she was in jail after the shooting, and former neighbors of the couple who testified to having seen Patterson strike his wife in the course of a quarrel. One witness, a former neighbor, declared that she had seen Patterson carrying a gun and that he had told her that he was never without it.

DR. GOMEZ WRITES LETTER

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 27.—The arrival of 100 rurales, bringing the strength of the Juarez garrison up to 800, and the receipt of a disquieting letter to Gen. Pasqual Orozco from Dr. Francisco Vasquez Gomez, recent candidate for vice president of Mexico, today increased anxiety over the situation south of the Rio Grande. Dr. Gomez in his letter is said to have declared that President Madero had failed to carry out the plan of San Luis Obispo and that he, the writer, feels called upon to see that they are carried out.

suit upon my integrity by Mr. Martin go unchallenged and he will be given an opportunity to explain some things that many members of congress have been wondering about for a long time.

Mr. Littleton conferred with Chairman Stanley and Representative Ewell and McGillicuddy, Democratic members of the committee.

At that conference it was agreed that Mr. Littleton should put his charges and requests for subpoenas in writing.

Chairman Stanley tonight declared he would make no long statement relating to the controversy until he had received Mr. Littleton's formal letter.

The secretary of the "Antitrust League," H. B. Martin, Chairman Stanley declared, "is not in the employ of the committee investigating the affairs of the United States Steel corporation, nor has he ever been so employed. He has no connection directly or indirectly with the committee, and it is just to Mr. Martin to say that he never requested nor sought any employment of any kind or any remuneration whatever from this committee."

Jackson Thiner, the Washington correspondent, whom Mr. Littleton was supposed to be attacking, Mr. Littleton of the article attacking Mr. Littleton.

Mr. Martin tonight denied emphatically and categorically the charges of Representative Littleton. He declared he had nothing whatever to do with the articles attacking the congressman and said that while he knew David Lamar, he never had had business dealings with him or any kind.

Did you notice that handsome amateur cent Charlie Blank was wearing at the football game last week? Of course he bought it at the May Co. Quitting Business.

PROBING "FOOD TRUST"

DENVER, Nov. 27.—A federal grand jury here today is investigating the existence of an alleged food trust in this city. A large number of witnesses have been subpoenaed, whose testimony, it is said, deals largely with the alleged ring among wholesale produce dealers. The high price of sugar is also being investigated, it is reported.

Japan Acting in Conformity With Treaty Agreement

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The action of the Japanese government in ordering 700 Japanese troops to Tien Tsin and Peking is explained by a statement issued today by the department of state, showing the movement is strictly in conformity with authority conferred by treaty and that it is taken with the full knowledge and consent of the council of foreign ministers at Peking.

There has been no breach of the amicable understanding that has been arranged between the powers having interests in China as to the extent to which their troops might be employed in that country.

Under the protocol of 1901 and subsidiary arrangements terminating the Boxer troubles, an understanding was reached that the strength of the legation guards at Peking should be 2,000 men furnished by the United States, Germany, France, Great Britain, Japan, Italy, Austria, Hungary and Russia in about equal numbers. The total number of guards of all nationalities now at Peking is only 1,200.

At the same time it was arranged that permanent garrisons for the protection of the railway should be maintained at Tien Tsin and Shanghai Kwan, the former first fixed at 3,000 men and the latter at 1,500, and also that eight other minor stations along the railway should be occupied by a force of 300 men each or a total of 5,800 men of all arms, as railway guards.

The number now stationed along the line is approximately 3,200, of which 2,100 are at Tien Tsin and about 1,100 at Shanghai Kwan. Thus it appears that the legation guards and the railway guards are at present considerably below their full quota.

The American and French legation guards at Peking are already at the maximum, 230 to 240 men. Those of the other nationalities, with two or three exceptions, are about half strength.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 27.—Five hundred persons sat down at the "Develop Alaska" dinner of the chamber of commerce, which was given in the Arctic club this evening, the purpose of the gathering being to further the movement to obtain legislation from congress for the opening of Alaska to settlement and of its resources to development. In this movement, controversial subjects, including coal, timber and form of government, have been avoided.

Among principal speakers was ex-United States Senator John L. Wilson, who, told of the success of the delegation headed by him, which visited the various cities of the coast to enlist the commercial bodies in the campaign for opening Alaska. He announced hearty cooperation of the whole coast in the advocacy of the following program:

Alaska to navigation, through establishing light houses and buoys, land surveys, reduction of cable tolls, aid for internal transportation, especially railroads, protection of salmon and seal industries, and good roads.

CONVENTION LEAGUE TO SEND DELEGATION TO WASHINGTON

DENVER, Nov. 27.—At a meeting of the Denver Convention League today, it was decided to send a delegation of six to Washington, D. C., to make a fight before the executive committee to get the next Republican national convention for Denver. The delegation will pledge $1,000 to pay the convention's expenses. Of this amount $55,000 has been raised. The convention league's officers say assurances have been received that the rest will be forthcoming as soon as the convention is assured for Denver.

No Progress in McNamara Murder Trial Yesterday

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 27.—The McNamara murder trial began its eighth week today with eight sworn jurors and one taleman accepted as to cause. Tonight it stood in exactly the same position. The day was taken up with the examination of nine talemen, who were excused for one cause or another, and a tenth, who was under examination when court adjourned, but probably will be excused tomorrow.

There will be no court tomorrow morning because of the funeral of a brother of J. B. Sexton, one of the sworn jurors.

The talemen excused and the reasons therefore were:

H. W. Houser, ill health; C. D. Collins, Martin, ill health; and Christian Seballus, actual bias; George W. Cameron, Guy A. Cherry, Frederick L. Brown and H. L. Asher, conscientious scruples against the death penalty; Guy D. Homer, not on livingment roll.

The centenary of David Livingston's birth will be observed in 1912. Charing Cross hospital in London, where he studied medicine, is soliciting gifts of one million shillings, which would enable it to reopen the wards now closed because of shrunken funds.

Believes Woman Victim Crude Practical Joke

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The miscarriage of a crude practical joke caused the death of Mrs. Alice Tristram Shanks, said to be the daughter of Canon Tristram of Trinity church, Dublin, in the opinion of coroner Shogmut, who announced today that several men who were with her when she took poison would be summoned to explain.

The woman died Saturday night in a hospital ambulance from effects of carbolic acid which she drank in the restaurant of the golf club house in Van Cortlandt park. It was thought then she had deliberately taken her own life.

The bottle containing this acid, the coroner now believes, was labeled "Vermouth" and placed beside Mrs. Shanks' plate in a spirit of fun.

SUICIDE'S FAREWELL A JOEM
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—Before committing suicide today in a hotel, a man had added his last words to this letter of farewell: "I want to leave you but the B. A. of H. A. must part."
So says the world to leave you and this world depart.
As this, robbed me of my money and all my estate,
I bid you good-by, boys, as the message came too late.
The post office stated his name was "Joe" and the address of a friend in town.
"If you can't take one beat, take two," he added.

THREE GREEKS FINED FOR PLAYING POKER

In addition to having to pay a fine of $10 each, three Greeks, Nick Gallos and George Chiles, were fined by police magistrate Starrett to refund $10 that Gus Pooles a recent arrival lost in a poker game Sunday afternoon in the Santa Fe hotel house. The story came out when Pooles was arrested early yesterday morning on a charge of vagrancy. He was sleeping in the gutter near the corner of Huertano street and Cascade avenue. He said that he had lost all his money in a poker game. Pooles furnished the names and the men were arrested and given a hearing yesterday afternoon.

George Jenson, a Greek, will have a hearing at 10 o'clock this morning before Justice Gowdy on a charge of grand larceny. It is claimed that he stole the savings of a Greek colony of railroad employees at Butte several weeks ago. His companions claim they lost $300. Jenson was arrested in Pueblo.

THREE GRANTED DIVORCES

Three divorces were granted by Judge Little in the county court yesterday. Mrs. Lizzie von Wolff proved that her husband, Claud von Wolff was cruel. They were married in Omaha in 1907.
Mrs. Jennie Crane was granted legal separation from Fred Crane. They were married in this city August 28, 1907. She charged nonsupport and cruelty.

The bonds of matrimony that united Mrs. Bessie C. Lerley and Mark A. Lerley at San Antonio, Tex., in 1900 were severed. Mrs. Lerley alleged cruelty.

Colorado City has asked Judge J. W. Sheafar of the district court to grant a new trial in the Mrs. Willie Hunt case. A jury decided a few days ago that Mrs. Hunt was entitled to $850 damages as a result of a fall she had several months ago in an open ditch. She claimed the city was negligent and asked $15,500 damages. Attorneys for Colorado City, in presenting the motion, say that the original complaint does not state sufficient facts to constitute a cause of action. Four alleged errors of the court are mentioned.

Lee Wing proprietor of a restaurant on Huertano street will have a hearing next Monday before Magistrate Starrett on a charge of permitting liquor to be sold on consumed in his place of business. Wing was arraigned yesterday afternoon. He pleaded not guilty and asked for a continuance. Beer was confiscated from the restaurant at the time of the arrest. The names given by those arrested with Wing are: C. E. Black, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mason, J. H. Miller, Miss Miller, C. D. Smith, Robert Kerr and Miss E. Pew.

G. F. Humphries, Ella Peterson and John Rose were given final citizenship papers by Judge J. W. Sheafar of the district court yesterday.

Frank Crymes and A. Brant, instead of having to pay a fine of $10 and costs each assessed against them on charges of vagrancy, will be given a chance to make good their expressed willingness to go to work if work can be obtained. Magistrate Starrett gave each a note to the free employment bureau yesterday morning. The police are making further investigations of Charles Alstott, who was fined $20 on a charge of vagrancy. Pat Thomas paid $10 fine on a charge of intoxication.

The police are investigating the character of H. Bartlett, arrested yesterday. Although he was thinly clad Bartlett was carrying a pair of costly fur gloves and a woman's bracelet. Bartlett claims he purchased them while the police think the articles were stolen.

The will of the late Thomas E. Curtin was admitted to probate in the county court yesterday. The widow, Mrs. Leona Muse Curtin, was named as executrix without bond. In addition to his personal property, Mr. Curtin left valuable orchard land in Garfield county. After the payment of debts all the property goes to Mrs. Curtin. Mr. Curtin died October 30. He was well known in local club and financial circles.

Tony Masked is out on a bond of $200 and Mat Kahus is held at the county jail awaiting trial for disturbance which is said to have followed a wedding celebration near the Curtis mines Sunday. The men are said to have engaged in a fight over an old grudge in which money matters were involved. They were arrested by Deputy Sheriff Compton and Hobbs, and arraigned yesterday before Justice W. H. Gowdy.

ENGLAND'S GREATEST ACTOR

Intense interest is being shown in the visit of England's greatest living actor, Forbes-Robertson, to this city shortly in "The Passing of the Third Floor Back." No actor within modern times has become so popular as Forbes-Robertson, and much of his wonderful success is due to the intense interest he gives to the part of the stranger in "The Passing of the Third Floor Back." As a play it is a splendid combination of comedy and sublimity, but the masterly portrayal of Forbes-Robertson gives the leading character a life of modern times into higher realms. With a personality that is predominating and a voice which is full of tenderness and pathos, this actor carries all before him.

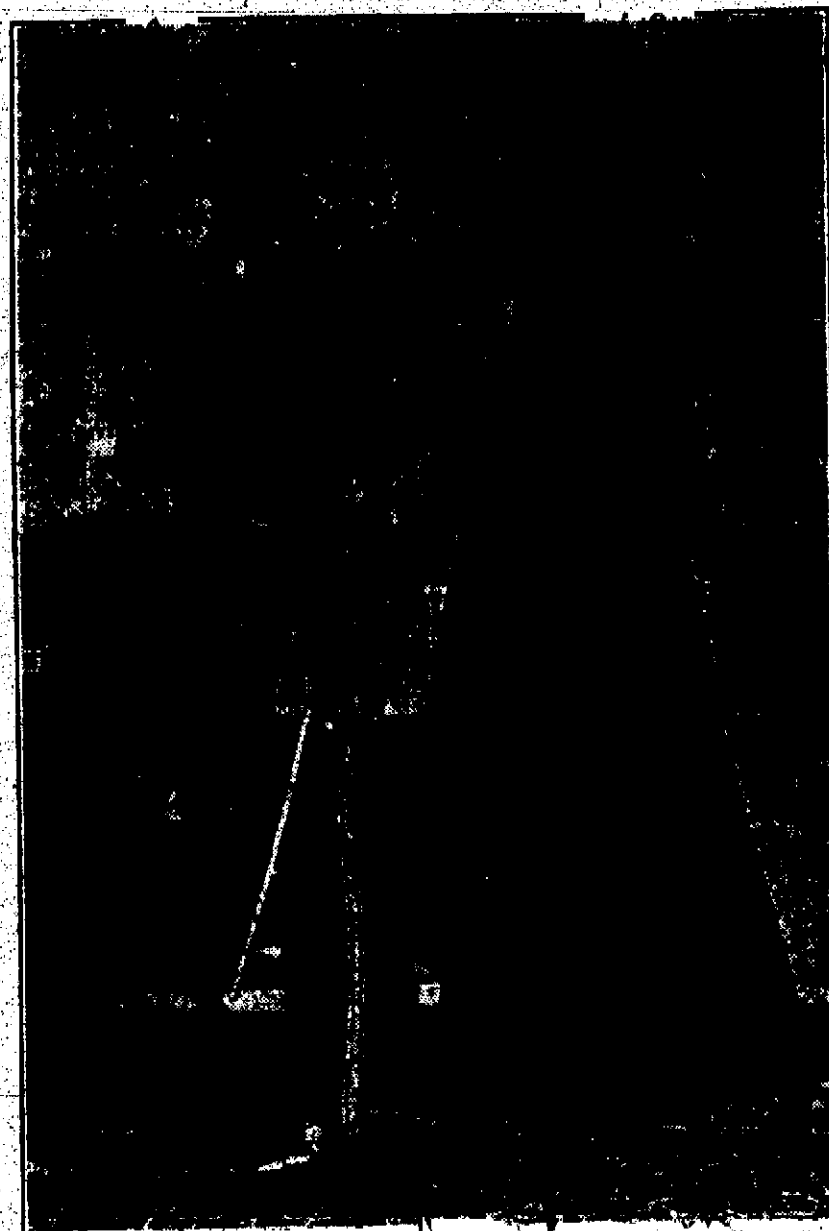

The character he reveals to his audience is to a great extent, of course, a mystical one, but is best explained by the reason that he represents the better self in each one of us. The scene of the play is a boarding house, where all the lodgers are crying, weeping, full of petty jealousies, attracted by a card displayed that there is a room to let, this mystical "stranger" comes to the door and asks if he may take the vacant room. This is by way of prelude. The play itself deals with the influence for good that Forbes-Robertson successfully and in simple fashion casts over his fellow-lodgers. The epilogue shows that peace which passeth all understanding in the same room, but in an atmosphere which is vitiated with a new force—the force of good will. It is one of these plays which touches the heart and leaves a lasting impression for good, and all who wish to see beautiful acting and a wonderful play should witness Forbes-Robertson in "The Passing of the Third Floor Back."

CHAMPION GUTCH IN ACTION AT WRESTLING

is repeating this year with added brilliancy. While the central figure is that of a Catholic priest, the character is so drawn that the question of sectarianism is not in any way involved. Rev. Brian Kelly is presented as a man of God, whose greatest thought is the good he can for his fellow man of whatever creed or of no creed, and Blomser Jennings who fills the character, seems to have caught the author's inspiration in his conception of the role as the audience at the Opera house will see when the production is presented there tonight only. He plays a keen Irish sense of humor and good will as a foil to his priestly calling, and thus is able to solve the depths of a domestic tragedy and restore happiness to a home that is near destruction through the machinations

A SCENE FROM "THE WHITE SISTER."

Gutch, the Iowa farmer, and George Hackenschmidt, the Russian lion, who have since met with the result that the lion proved a mark for the Iowa brawler and went back to his native haunts to live off the lion's end.

This week's interest is the engagement at the Majestic this week of the now undisputed champion, who is figuratively speaking, wrestling an exhibition match at every performance with Albert Weston, the celebrated English comedian. It would not do to speak of Gutch's appearance at the Majestic, for nobody has seen him or will see him at least this week, but he is there in spirit for Weston in his laughable sketch. The Evening Star gives an indication of wrestling with Gutch, and of course mentions to his admirers.

Next to seeing Gutch this is about as interesting a thing as the wrestling fan would want to see, for Weston is an expert grappler, knows every hold, catch and escape, and initiates them in a most remarkable way. Wrestling as such is suggested by the Humboldt school is shown from A to Z, even though Weston only pits the Gutch holds on himself. Shouting waiters who have seen this stuff are a unit in telling it highly as an instructive exposition of the catch and escape.

Performances at 7:30, 9:30 and 11:30. Admission only 10c and 20c.

ANSWER

One the flat, sad, sickly looking one was baked with poor baking soda; possibly the high-priced kind—possibly the cheap, big can kind. It denotes a lack of leavening gas, or an uneven distribution of same or both. The other—the large, light, fluffy one—was prepared with Calumet Baking Powder, and denotes the never-failing, delicious baking that always results from its use.

Calumet does not cost as much as the high-price baking powder, but it is very much superior in every way—it is purer, more reliable, more healthful. Here are the reasons:

All baking powders undergo a chemical change in the process of baking. You do not take it into the stomach in the same form as it is in the can. For example: When you use Cream of Tartar Baking Powder you get Rochelle Salts in your food, because the Cream of Tartar during this reaction turns into Rochelle Salts. This, as you know, is a drug, and should be taken only under doctor's orders.

Calumet is so carefully and scientifically prepared that the neutralization of the ingredients is absolutely perfect.

That it is absolutely pure and of highest quality is proven by the fact that exception, and the scenic equipment of the production is beautiful as well as effective. The staging of the show is a credit to Rowland and Clifford, who have six companies playing the same play this season. Good seats may be secured. The prices are 50c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.50.

"THE HOUSE NEXT DOOR" SEATS

During the sensational run of eight months at the Galaty theater, New York, of Cohen & Harris production of J. Hartley Manners' delightful comedy, "The House Next Door," the instantaneous hit of both the play and play-ers was the talk of New York and the house was sold out weeks ahead, after the initial performance. Newspaper and magazine publicity made "The House Next Door" known to the theatergoers throughout the land. Flaming posters, extolling the play, greeted New York visitors on every hand. Myriads of cleverly executed electric signs made "Broadway, 'The Great White Way' and the means of all visitors in the metropolis a riot of light and color, proclaiming the tremendous success of "The House Next Door." A visit to New York without seeing the play was incomplete.

Manager Nye of the Opera house has completed arrangements with Messrs. Rowland & Gaskill, under whose direction the play is in tour, for an engagement of two performances, matinee and night, Thanksgiving day, Thursday of this week, with William V. Mong and a splendid cast, and the complete production. This will be one of the notable attractions of the season. Reservations for seats can be made this morning at the Opera house box office. The matinee prices are, parquet, $1.00; dress circle, 75 cents; balcony, 50 cents and gallery 25 cents. The night prices are, parquet, $1.50; dress circle, $1.00; balcony, 75 cents and gallery, 50 cents.

"THE WHITE SISTER"

Plays that have a religious or church title usually frighten and drive away the ordinary playgoer from the theater, leaving the patronage to the church element of society who only patronize such plays. It is not so with the great Viola Allen, success "The White Sister," which the charming actress Jeanne Towler and her splendid company will present at the Opera house on Saturday matinee and night. Although "The White Sister" is the story of a Nun, it breathes of curtain falls and the audience leaves the theater happy in the thought that "the right has been done." "The White Sister" affords opportunity of acting of superior quality and gives Miss Towler a chance to demonstrate her right to her position as the most beautiful American emotional actress. The production is strikingly picturesque and presented with the same minute attention to detail that characterized the original Liebler and Co. production in New York.

People Will Talk You Know

And that's the reason why Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines are advertised so little now-a-days. They have made hundreds of thousands of cures in the past 40 years, and some of the grateful people whom they have restored to health are to be found almost everywhere. There's scarcely a hamlet that doesn't contain some. Look them up. Interview them. They are living, walking, active advertisements.

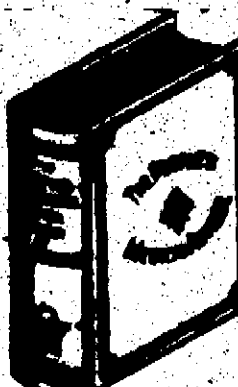

For Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines.

You can believe your neighbors. Therefore ask them. What cured them will very likely cure you, if similarly afflicted—only give them a good, fair trial.

It's a good, common sense policy to use only of KNOWN COMPOSITION, and which contain other well-known, reliable ingredients. The intelligent people, and many of the most successful, can be seen in the thousands of testimonials. The leading medical authorities, of all schools of medicine, endorse the ingredients as being Dr. Pierce's. These are plainly printed on wrappers and bottles. There's no secret; an open publicity, says a fair policy is followed by the makers.

We have a profound desire to avoid all offense to the most delicate sensitiveness of modest women, for whom we entertain the most sincere respect and admiration. We shall not, therefore, particularize here concerning the symptoms and peculiar ailments incident to the sex for which Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has for more than 40 years proven such a boon. We can not, however, do a better service to the afflicted of the gentler sex than to refer them to Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advice, a great family doctor book of 1000 pages, bound in cloth and given away gratis, or sent post-paid, on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to cover cost of wrapping and mailing only. All the delicate ailments and troubles about which every woman, whether young or old, single or married, should know, but which their sense of delicacy makes them hesitate to ask even the family physician about, are made plain in this great book. HIGH SCHOOL RATTLE WILL BE AN EVEN BET

A NEW "HOPE" BY SMILEY

HEAVY SCRIMMAGE FOR C. C. TEAM YESTERDAY

By IRVIN BRUCE

The Thanksgiving day contest between the Terrors and Longmont should bring forth the classic article of football that has been seen here this fall. Both elevens are composed of stars, with very little advantage on either side. The members of both teams are eager for the fray and are in the pink of condition. The team that wins will be the team that follows the ball and takes advantage of the misplays of the other.

Longmont, in my opinion, is the fastest high school team in the Rockies. When they played the "preps" two weeks ago they ran through their signals with so much speed the "preps" simply were dazed. They not only ran through their signals with this same speed, but they maintained it during the greater part of the game. Time after time they would have their plays started before their heavier opponents were off the ground from the play before.

In this game the Longmont team won because they used the pass to the better advantage than did the "preps." But when they face the Terrors they will find that they are facing a stronger team than the "preps" and will find that their passes will be harder to execute. The "preps" play their center in the natural position, which gave Longmont the chance to pull off their passes, while the Terrors play their center as a defensive back to break up passes. When it comes to breaking up passes there is no better man in the state than "Red" Hall, the Terrors' anchor.

The Terrors have the stronger line of the two and a heavier backfield, while Longmont excels in speed. Looking at the game from all angles, I come personally to the conclusion that the game will be an even bet.

Longmont is handicapped by the fact that they have no kickers of any merit. Dillinger is a fair punter, but is not in the same class with Johns and Fowler, the Terrors' boot artists. In Fowler and Johns the Terrors have a pair of the best drop kickers in the state, while Longmont has no kicker that can score from the field. It is this feature of the game that the High school student body are pinning their faith.

In Taylor the Terrors have, in the estimation of a great many critics, the best all-around end in the state. Taylor is one of the Terrors' special boys; an expert in handling the forward pass as a result of his basketball training; heavy enough to box the heaviest of high school tackles and is a natural end. If the Fowler-Taylor combination works as it did in the Mines game the Terrors should win. The open style of play is sure to play an important part in the winning of the Turkey day contest, as Longmont is recognized as the best exponent of the open style of play in the state, and is sure to uncork some brilliant passes.

Here is the line-up:
Longmont Position Terrors
Maier Taylor
Burick Worth
Nueby More
Cowan Hall
Mumma Eubaak
Busser Richardson
Lockard Ahl
Schultz Fowler
Cadwell Nifong
Golden Schoedler

BITTERLY RETAINS HIS RIFLE HONORS

A. G. Bitterly of Denver captured all of the honors yesterday in the closing day's shoot of the annual meet of the Colorado Rifle association on the Colorado City range. He won first place in the Denver Post trophy, Winchester event and Merchandise shoot.

J. M. Auld, Colorado Springs man, ran him a close second. He was but a few points behind in the Denver Post and Merchandise events, and but for an accident would have been a close contestant for honors in the Winchester shoot.

In capturing the Denver Post trophy with a score of 426 out of a possible 500, Mr. Bitterly but duplicates a feat that he has been accomplishing for several successive years. In getting second place Mr. Auld finished with a score of 408. The trophy carries with it the championship title of seven states.

Mr. Bitterly made a score of 22 in a possible 35 in the Merchandise shoot. A. W. Peterson of Denver was second with a score of 30. Mr. Auld had a score of 25 and Charles Hestings had a score of 27.

The Winchester 10-shot event brought out a score of 88 in a possible 100 by Mr. Bitterly. John Young of Denver was second with a score of 84. The high wind kept the scores down.

CUBANS DEFEAT GIANTS

HAVANA, Nov. 27.—The Havana nine defeated the New York Nationals, 3 to 2 today.

RALPH MULFORD, DRIVING LOZIER AUTO, WINS ANNUAL VANDERBILT RACE; RECORD HELD BY HARVEY HERRICK IS SMASHED

GRAND PRIX RACE COURSE SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 27.—When a white streak flashed by the judge's stand late today, at the finish of the seventh Vanderbilt cup race, the American automobile world hailed Ralph K. Mulford, driver of a Lozier car, a new champion.

Not only had Mulford lowered all previous Vanderbilt records, but he also had surpassed the Santa Monica performance of Harvey Herrick. In covering 202 miles in an average of 74.83 miles an hour, Mulford was pushed to win the nerve-racking 202-mile contest by Ralph De Palma, the brilliant driver of a French Mercedes. De Palma finished just a little more than two minutes behind the winner and eight minutes in advance of the other Mercedes entrant, Spencer Wishart, who finished third. Only six of the fourteen cars that started finished. Bob Burman and David Bruce-Brown, winner of last year's Grand prize race, were among those forced to drop out through the defection of their machines.

The race was won without the exaction of the usual toll of life. Among numerous accidents which befell contestants to the detriment of their chances to possess the coveted trophy, there is only one imperiled life and limb. A rear wheel on Bruce-Brown's Fiat car flew off. For a turn had been taken at low speed. Bruce-Brown and his mechanism escaped unhurt.

Bob Burman was the victim of hard luck. He had just driven his Marmon around the seventh lap in record time, one minute and a half behind Mulford, the leader, when a loose stone struck the gasoline tank connection and broke it. Burman abandoned the race.

Cyrus Patschke, driver of the other Marmon entry also was running a good race when an air pump gave way on the ninth lap and forced him out of the contest. Joe Matson took his Fiat back to camp when a leaky radiator threatened the destruction of his engine by fire.

The elapsed time of the six cars which finished the race was as follows:

Lozier—Ralph Mulford—202.00 67-100.
Mercedes—Ralph De Palma—208-11.
55-100.
Lozier—Harry Grant—250.23 67-100.
Fiat—H. H. Parker—254.25 8-100.
Pope—Hummel—Louis Disbrow—268.02 68-100.

The average speed of the winner was 74.67 miles an hour. His time for the 202 miles against Herrick's record was 74.9. Herrick's record was 74.63.

The record for former Vanderbilt race was 63.08 miles held by Harry Grant winner of the 1909 and 1910 races who finished a fourth today.

Hughes, Hughes, driving a Mercer, broke the former Vanderbilt record today in winning the Savannah challenge trophy light car race, traveling 232.83 miles at an average of 68.4.

Frank Witt drove an E. M. F. to victory in the Tideman Trophy contest at an average speed of 58.34 for the 31.40 miles. E. M. F. cars also won the second and third places in this race.

EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 27.—Andrew Johnson, left end of the Northwestern university football team, was elected captain for 1912 today.

Owing to the diminishing supply of sturgeon caviar Siberian fishermen have been experimenting with salmon roe.

Coach Rothgeb gambled with fate and injury yesterday afternoon and put the Terrors through a stiff scrimmage, the last before the big game with Denver university Thursday at Broadway park, Denver. Luck favored the Tiger instructor, and the first string men came through at the finish without any injuries that might handicap them in the battle with the Minsters.

Yesterday's scrimmage was the last of the season, and there will be no more heavy work in preparing for Denver. This afternoon there will be a long signal drill and practice of the new plays that have been devised especially for the Denver game. There will be a short practice tomorrow afternoon and the team will go to Denver that evening, spending the night at the Auditorium hotel.

On the eve of the big game there is an air of confidence in the Tiger camp, and those who have followed the practice for the last few days give the college an even break with D. U. For the last week Rothgeb has devoted the greater part of his efforts to developing speed and team work, and judging from the last two scrimmages the Tigers are just beginning to find themselves. The line men show marked improvement in changing with the ball, and the backfield is working together better than at any other time this season.

Vandermeer and Sinton have been devoting considerable time to drop-kicking, as one of the means to offset the educated toe of Duke Schroeder, the Denver kicker, and either man is likely to score a goal from the field from around the 30-yard line. The Tigers have been woefully weak in this particular department of the game all season, and had they possessed a place or drop-kicker in some of the earlier

Our baker has taken special pains this year to have extra fine fruit cake and Plum Pudding.
You will be able to make nothing better in your own hall. The fruit, spices, eggs, etc., are the finest, and are so arranged in just the right way to give that perfect flavor that everyone expects in a Thanksgiving cake.
Our Plum and Pudding will be better than any. If you have never tasted one of them, you will be surprised at their delicious homelike flavor, which is equal and, indeed, superior to that of the best home baking.
Orders should be given a day in advance, as there will be a heavy demand.
Give your Thanksgiving order today if so. Our drivers will appreciate it. We will call for you.
